

Players, Officials & Volunteers Code of Conduct

'Always loved, never forgotten'

Player Agreement

Sands United is a unique way for bereaved men to come together through a shared love of sport, find a support network, and feel at ease talking about their grief when they're ready. When you come together to wear the Sands United kit on the pitch or talk about the team or the charity on social media, you're helping to break the silence around baby loss and offering hope to other families who have experienced this overwhelming grief.

Sands United FC Kent

Sands is committed to keeping Sands United a positive and enjoyable environment for everyone. We will always act in the best interest of our players, managers, and officials who represent Sands United. Our Player, Officials and Volunteers Codes of Conduct sets the standards we expect from everybody involved in Sands United FC. The Code of Conduct has been developed to improve standards of good practice and protect the welfare and wellbeing of all those involved in the game.

Sands United FC South Yorkshire

Sands United FC – Code of Conduct

The following guidelines and regulations on conduct apply when you're representing Sands and Sands United regardless of format. This includes but is not limited to; in person representation, social media, and online appearance as well as within formal/informal Sands United groups.

Whether you're a player, official or volunteering within Sands United we ask that you abide by the following guidelines and promote our core values, always aims and objectives in the correct manner.

- > Embrace and demonstrate the Sands always aims and objectives.
- > Never place match results above the importance of inclusion and support.
- > Raise positive awareness and support for Sands/ Sands United activities.
- > Refrain from the use of foul, abusive and discriminatory language always.
- > Avoid any action which may bring Sands/Sands United into disrepute.
- > Adhere to the laws of the game and always pursue fair play.
- > Maintain and protect all confidential information/communications.
- > Show respect to your peers, opposition and your local community when representing and volunteering for Sands/Sands United.

- > Always encourage and support your teammates, creating a culture and environment welcoming of all.

By representing Sands and Sands United you're agreeing to the terms outlined above and accept that failure to uphold this Code of Conduct may lead to subsequent action which could affect you and potentially your team, when appropriate.

